

Clinical Psychology Degree Plan (M. S. in Clinical Psychology)

The Master of Science program in Clinical Psychology is designed to prepare graduates for professional employment with supervision in various areas of psychology, to begin a college teaching career, and/or to continue to further graduate study. This 48-hour program of study includes a set of core or required courses, elective selections, 450 clock hours of practicum experiences, and a thesis project.

First Year: Fall Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 610 - Psychotherapy & Lab (3)
- PSYC 612 - Clinical Research Methods (3)
- PSYC 642 - Cognitive Assessment (3)
- PSYC 650 - Ethics & Issues (3)

Spring Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 657 - Intermediate Statistics (3)
- PSYC 660/645 - Clinical Assessment/Child & Adolescent Assessment (3)
- PSYC 682/647 - Advanced Psychopathology/Child & Adolescent Psychopathology (3)
- PSYC 690 - Practicum I (3)

Second Year: Fall Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 692 - Practicum II (3)
- PSYC 699 - Thesis (3)
- PSYC 631 - Human Life Cycle II (recommended) (3)
- PSYC 664 - Career Counseling for LPC in Texas (recommended) (3)

Spring Semester (12 Hours)

- PSYC 692 - Practicum II (3)
- PSYC 699 - Thesis (3)
- 6 hours of electives (6)